

Week of Dec. 25 - 31 2016

Choir Rehearsals - Sunday before church (8am) in Music Room. All are welcome!

Christmas Eve & Christmas Day Service times

Christmas Eve: 4pm (family oriented) and 9pm (traditional)

Christmas Day: 9am

Christmas Eve – 4:00
Family Service

Please have your children bring their favorite stuffed animal or two to worship for a special blessing during Christmas Eve worship.

Please bring non-perishable food items ...

Please remember to bring a non-perishable food item to church. These items will be donated to the new food pantry, Heights Unlimited. (Look for donation basket in the narthex.)

Heights Unlimited is a 'mission outpost' in the community whose primary focus is providing basic necessities for individuals and families in Black Earth, Mazomanie, and the surrounding area while working to bring people to self-sufficiency. Food and clothing distribution, a 'handyman' program, school supply distribution and a self-sustaining ministry are some of the program services provided by Heights Unlimited.

Looking for information about how to get more involved in some way? Contact Brad Delwiche (608-284-0970), Pam Gattenby (608-469-7241) or Francine Rask (608- 212-5100).

Thank you!

Have something for the 2016 Church Annual Report?

Do you have something that needs to go in the 2016 Annual Report?

If so, please submit it by January 5th so it can be included. (You can email your report to the office, MS Word format. om@stmartinscp.org) Thank you!

Weather Issues / Church Closings

When there is a Church closing information can be found on the church web site (www.stmartinspc.org), by calling the office (798-2777), watching the news 'ticker' on Channel 3, Madison, or by checking their website, channel3000.com.

Pajama Sunday!

Sunday, January 1, 2017, wear your favorite winter pajamas to church.

Bring your leftover cookies and your cup of coffee and come to worship "just as you are when you wake up" on the first day of the year.

Let's praise God for a new year and relax and worship in God's house together.

A note from Pastor Kirsten

Please know that I am available if you need help. Know how to help others as well. if you can't reach me at church, my cell phone number is 438-5834.

Suicide Prevention Helpcard *

If someone you know:

- threatens suicide
- talks or writes about wanting to die
- appears depressed, sad, withdrawn, hopeless
- shows significant changes in behavior, appearance, mood (either from being "normal" to being depressed or the reverse)
- abuses drugs, alcohol
- deliberately injures himself or herself
- says he or she will not be missed if gone
- gives away treasured belongings . . .

You can help:

- stay calm and listen
- take threats seriously
- let him or her talk about his or her feelings
- be accepting; do not judge
- ask if he or she has suicidal thoughts
- ask how intense and frequent these thoughts are
- ask if he or she has a plan
- ask if he or she has a means to carry out the plan
- don't swear secrecy—tell someone
- assure the person it is okay and necessary to get help . . .

Get help: You cannot do it alone

Accompany the person to your:

- hospital emergency room
- mental health services
- police
- family, friend, relative
- clergy, teacher, counselor
- family doctor
- or call your crisis line

Call your 911 number for emergency assistance or check the inside front cover page of your telephone book for local crisis services. The National Crisis Helpline is 888-784-2433 (1-888-SUICIDE). The National "YOUTH" Crisis Helpline is 800-999-9999.

For information on the nearest ELCA social ministry organization providing non-emergency counseling for suicidal persons, call Lutheran Services in America (LSA), 800-664-3848. You may visit LSA online (www.lutheranservices.org).

Restoring God's House - GREAT NEWS!

As of Sunday, Dec. 19th, we have collected $43,140 and have another $11,150 in pledges for a total of $54,290! That means we have met our goal for the lower parking lot project! (Remember - Your gift qualifies for Federal/State tax deduction and you will receive a receipt.)

Thank you for your support to Restoring God's House, St. Martin's! It took our congregation joining together to make this effort a success and WE DID IT!

Youth and Family Ministry Team Opportunity

The Church Council is seeking to establish a Youth and Family Ministry Team as outlined in our Constitution. This Team will work with Pastor and, hopefully, a Youth & Family Ministry Coordinator to establish and oversee our Christian education programs for St. Martin's children of all ages. We are hoping to get this Team off the ground in September. The Team would likely meet monthly to make programmatic and procedural decisions, as well as support our staff in executing the programs. If you are interested in serving in this vital ministry opportunity please contact Karen Windels (608-798-5031, or karenwindels@gmail.com). Thank you!

Looking for Group Confirmation Pictures (2000-2014)

Do you have group pictures of confirmation students from the years 2000 through 2014? We are trying to update our church history / records and are looking for pictures from those years.

If you have any, please forward to the office (om@stmartinscp.org)

Thank you!

Commitment Cards

Please consider if you have not yet turned in your commitment card. Thank you to all who have!

Copies of the form can be found at the church.
