Heights Unlimited is a 'mission outpost' in the community whose primary focus is providing basic necessities for individuals and families in Black Earth, Mazomanie, and the surrounding area while working to bring people to self-sufficiency. Food and clothing distribution, a 'handyman' program, school supply distribution and a self-sustaining ministry are some of the program services provided by Heights Unlimited.

The Small Catechism

In preparation for the 500th anniversary of the Reformation, St. Martin's Lutheran embarks on a series focusing on Luther's Small Catechism. We will be studying and discussing The Small Catechism during Lent. What is your favorite part of the Small Catechism? What does the Small Catechism mean to you? Share your stories! Send them to om@stmartinscp.org. Re-read this treasure in our faith tradition, which includes:

- Luther's Preface to the Small Catechism
- The Ten Commandments
- The Creed
- The Lord's Prayer
- The Sacrament of Holy Baptism
- Confession
- The Sacrament of the Altar
- Daily Prayers

What is the Small Catechism? (from the ELCA Macedonia Project)

In 1529 Martin Luther, a pastor in the German town of Wittenberg, published his explanations to the chief parts of the Christian faith. This little resource, which he designed for use in the home, came to be known as The Small Catechism. Taken directly from the Bible, The Small Catechism is a summary of the chief teachings of the Christian faith. In a concise way, the Catechism helps us know what we really need to know about living as a Christian. The Small Catechism contains the Ten Commandments, the Apostles Creed, and the Lord's Prayer. It teaches what we need to know about Baptism, Confession and Forgiveness, and Holy Communion. Luther wrote The Small Catechism for the home, so that parents could explain to their children in simple terms the most important things in the Christian faith. We never outgrow the catechism, though. Luther himself said, "As for myself, I, too, am a doctor and a preacher — yes, and as learned and experienced as any of those who act so high and mighty. Yet I do as a child who is being taught the Catechism. Every morning, and whenever else I have time, I read and recite word for word the Lord's Prayer, the Ten Commandments, the Creed, the Psalms, etc. I must still read and study the Catechism daily, yet I cannot master it as I wish, but must remain a child and pupil of the Catechism, and I do it gladly."
