Where all are welcome to worship, to learn, to serve in the name of Jesus Christ.

HOW TO CONNECT TO ZOOM WORSHIP

NEW LINK!

Thank you to everyone who has participated in our new Zoom worship services! We have loved sharing this new format with all of you and having the chance to see your faces and hear your voices! It has been a great opportunity for building community and feeling the connection of the Holy Spirit between us. For those who have been unable to attend the live worship services on Zoom, recordings are available the next day on Facebook and YouTube.

We open the Zoom meeting every Sunday morning by 8:45, so feel free to pour yourself a cup of coffee and settle in a bit early to have a chance to catch up with everyone before the service begins. Worship begins at 9. After the worship service, we will leave the meeting open for a while so you can have an online fellowship time!

There are two ways to connect to Zoom worship.

NOTE: This connection information has been updated.

This connection information will NOT be published to Facebook or the church website for security. You are encouraged to share this login information direction with any friends or family who wish to join. The more the merrier!

- The Spirit of Justice, Reconciliation, and Repentance to open the hearts of all and guide us to hold much needed conversations about race, prejudice and privilege across the United States.
- Teachers, school administrators, students and families as they begin a new school year unlike any other;
- Researchers and public health officials who are tracking outbreaks of virus and keeping our communities safe from disease;
- An end to the COVID-19 global pandemic, especially all medical teams and researchers who are still at work fighting the virus and finding a vaccine;
- Those who are ill, hospitalized, or recovering, especially Karen Esser, Janeen LaBelle Barreau, JoAnn Schneider and Herb Hiebuhr;
- Those who are home-bound, especially Irene Brockmann, Shirley Coulson, Lucille Hoffmann, Arline Schmidt, and Gary Trappe.

Hoffmann 67th Anniversary

As you may have noticed under the 'Birthday's & Anniversaries' section below, Lorren and Lucille Hoffmann will be celebrating their 67th (sixty seventh!) wedding anniversary on Sept. 26th.

If you'd like to drop them a card or note, their address is Lorren & Lucille Hoffmann, 2220 East St., Cross Plains, WI 53528.

Happy Anniversary, Lorren and Lucille!

UNRAVELED PRAYER CHAIN

During this time of uncertainty, as we all feel unraveled, we continue to pray for each other and remember that we are a community woven together in Spirit even when circumstances prevent us from gathering in person. Join us by adding your "unraveled" prayers to our prayer chain.

Every Tuesday and Thursday, from 9 AM to 2 PM, you are welcome to stop by the church, pick up a strip of fabric from the table in the narthex, and use the markers provided to write or draw your prayer onto the fabric.

Your prayer can be whatever you want: a picture, a poem, a single word or many words.

Whatever is on your heart. Place your completed prayer strip in the basket and we will collect them to add to our prayer chain over the next few months.

WHAT'S NORMAL?

Isn't that a good question? For most of us, "normal" hasn't been part of our lives since early March. But I have a confession to make ... I felt something "normal" recently. What was it? FOOTBALL!!! Yes, I LOVED and I mean absolutely LOVED watching the first NFL game of the season last Thursday night. It felt like something "normal" had taken place. And the Packers game was wonderful in more ways than one. One, of course, it was football and not a rerun of a past game either. Secondly, I got my rec room cleaned. Every year, I get my rec room cleaned by watching football and once that's done (and it is done...yea!) then I move on to perhaps piecing a quilt top together while watching a game. If the TV wasn't so large, I could move it to another room and clean that one as well but it doesn't work that way for me. I find it hard to just sit and watch a game ... after all, they show the same play several times so if I should miss the original play, I know I'll have an opportunity to see it again. So this is Normal!!! And isn't it great!!! So I hope that for some of you, the return to football or perhaps it happened earlier for you with the return of baseball and basketball, brings back a feeling of Normal at least for a few hours.

Now let's try to figure out how else we can feel "normal" again. Reaching out to others is a great way to help not only yourself, but the person you reach out to. Confession #2 for me, is that the earlier sunsets are really closing in on me. The other night I thought it must be 10:30 when a look at the clock told me it was only 8:15. Oh, the despair. If football isn't on (and we don't have cable), then I don't watch much TV, so there's a need to fill up the evening. Reading is always a great choice for me; as well as all kinds of puzzles. But I'm looking for something else because I know that the nights are going to get longer. Let me know if you have an idea for me.

Remember the slogan Reach out and touch someone? Well, I think we need to do that more now than ever before. It could be a phone call, an email, a text message, a snail mail message or even a chalk message on the driveway. Let's take time to find a way to make something feel normal once again, all while remaining safe, wearing a mask and washing our hands.

JOIN THE NEW BELL CHOIR!

They produce one of the most distinctive and pleasing sounds to the ear. The mellifluous tones of handbells and chimes are a regular part of the music ministry at many churches. A big part of handbell ringing is that it's something you can do without any musical background at all. It's a matter of learning the counting and techniques of ringing the bells, the different sounds the bells make. The attraction is that so many people can do it, especially people who want to be involved with the music ministry of church. It's also a great way to be involved socially distanced from each other during the time of Covid!

Starting in the fall of 2020, Kristin Warner will be directing the St. Martin's Handbell Choir. Whether you are new to handbells or are a pro, you are encouraged to be part of the group. Reading music isn't a prerequisite, and if you can't read notes, don't let that stop you from being part of the group. As a director, Kristin's passion is to bring out the emotion and meaning of the music that the choir is playing. She is looking forward to teaching people to go beyond just the basics and create art work.

Tentative schedule: Wednesday evening rehearsals, time TBD. This will all be figured out after I see how many people are interested in being part of the group. My goal is to have our first performance be during Advent, whether it's in person or via Zoom.

If you are interested in being part of the St. Martin's Handbell Choir, or if you just have some general questions, feel free to give Kristin a call or an email.

Ways to continue Giving

Here are some ways you can continue your support

- Try the old tried and true method - snail mail! That's right, mail your check in! (2427 Church St., Cross Plains, 53528)
- Drop off your contribution by using the locked box by the office door. No need to come in contact with anyone and it gets you out of the house for a few minutes. Someone will check this box daily.
- Contact your bank and ask them to help you with online banking. Most banks will send out a check as you direct them to. Most will even pay for the stamp!
- Try Give Plus. Yes, there's an App for that and it's FREE. Easy to use prompts help you get set up easily, quickly. There's no fee to you and a small fee to the church.
- PayPal -- We have PayPal set up on our website. You do not have to have PayPal account of your own.
- Direct Deposit. Many of you already use this method. If you wish to set this up, contact our bookkeeper, Lois Weiland, by calling 608-220-3123.
